PARTY'S CARDINAL POLICY

PROTECTION IS HELD TO BE THE CHIEF MAINSTAY OF COUN-TRY'S INDUSTRIES.

Chicago, June 23.—Proceedings of the Republican national convention, with Joseph G. Cannon in the chair, Wednesday took on a picturesqueness and demonstrativeness which were lacking Tuesday.

From the moment Speaker Cannon was escorted to the platform to wield the gavel as permanent chairman, the entire atmosphere of the convention changed. Enthusiasm which had lain dormant burst forth and the applause rang true and hearty. He made a speech and the audience cheered whether he spoke jokingly or in serious vein. He was the entertainer; in fact, he was the convention.

From the standpoint of political importance the adoption of the party platform was the event of the day. It contained declarations of party policy that are to form the basis of much of the oratory in the coming campaign. Cannon's personality overshadowed the platform in other senses.

The second day of the convention might have been the close had it been the desire of the delegates. Early in the day a movement was begun to proceed with the nominations, but the original programme, which was prepared to extend over three days, prevailed, and the standard bearers for the 1904 Republican campaign will be named formally today.

Temporary Chairman Root called the convention to order and after prayer by Rev. Thomas Cox, the business of the day began.

The report of the committee on credentials was first read and the only contest on the floor so far, that from Hawaii, was settled by granting that territory two delegates in the future and leaving undisturbed the six delegates already seated.

The platform, read by Senator Lodge, was adopted without a dissenting vote.

Mr. Root then introduced Permanent Chairman Cannon. The applause was so great it was some time before Mr. Cannon could deliver his address.

TEXT OF PLATFORM

POLICY OF REPUBLICAN PARTY AS OUTLINED BY THE CHI-CAGO CONVENTION.

The platform adopted by the Republican national convention follows:

Fifty years ago the Republican party came into existence, dedicated among other purposes to the great task of arresting the extension on human slavery. In 1860 it elected its first president. During twenty-four of the forty-four years which have elapsed since the election of Lincoln the Republican party has held complete control of the government. For eighteen more of the forty-four years it has held partial control through the possession of one or two branches of the government, while the Democratic party during the same period has had complete control for only two years. This long tenure of power by the Republican party is not due to chance. It is a demonstration that the Republican party has commanded the confidence of the American people for nearly two generations to a degree never equaled in our history and has displayed a high capacity for rule and government which has been made even more conspicuous by the incapacity and infirmity of purpose shown by its opponents.

The Republican party entered upon its present period of complete supremacy in 1897. We have every right to congratulate ourselves upon the work since then accomplished, for it has added lustre even to the traditions of the party which carried the government through the storms of civil war. We then found the country, after four years of Democratic rule, in evil plight, oppressed with misfortune and doubtful of the future. Public credit had been lowered, the revenues were declining, the debt was growing, the administration's attitude toward Spain was feeble and mortifying, the standard of values was threatened and uncertain, labor was unemployed, business was sunk in the depression which had succeeded the panic of 1893, hope was faint and confidence was gone.

PROTECTIVE TARIFF RESULTS IN EXPANSION OF TRADE.

We met these unhappy conditions vigorously, effectively and at once. We replaced a Democratic tariff law based on free trade principles and garnished with sectional protection by a consistent protective tariff and industry, freed from oppression and stimulated by the encouragement of wise laws, has expanded to a degree never before known, has conquered our markets and has created a volume of exports which has surpassed imagination. Under the Dingley tariff labor has been fully employed. Wages have risen and all industries have revived and prospered.

We firmly established the gold standard, which was then menaced with destruction. Confidence returned to business and with confidence an unexampled prosperity.

For excellent revenues supplemented by improvident issues of bonds we gave the country an income which produced a large surplus and which enabled us only four years after the Spanish war had closed to remove over $100,000,000 of annual war taxes, reduce the public debt and lower the interest charges of the government.

The public credit, which had been so lowered that in time of peace a Democratic administration made large loans at extravagant rates of interest in order to pay current expenditures, rose under Republican administration to its highest point and enabled us to borrow at 2 per cent even in time of war.

We refused to falter longer with the miseries of Cuba. We fought a quick and victorious war with Spain. We set Cuba free, governed the island for three years and then gave it to the Cuban people with order restored, with ample revenues, with education and public health established, free from debt and connected with the United States by wise provisions for our mutual interests.

We have organized the government of Porto Rico and its people now enjoy peace, freedom, order and prosperity.

CIVIL LIBERTY FOR PEOPLE OF THE PHILIPPINES.

In the Philippines we have suppressed insurrection, established order and given to life and property a security never known there before. We have organized civil government, made it effective and strong in administration and have conferred upon the people of those islands the largest civil liberty they have ever enjoyed.

By our possession of the Philippines we were enabled to take prompt and effective action in the relief of the legations at Peking and a decisive part in preventing the partition and the preserving of the integrity of China.

The possession of a route for an isthmian canal, so long the dream of American statesmanship, is now an accomplished fact. The great work of connecting the Pacific and Atlantic oceans by a canal is at last begun and it is due to the Republican party.

We have passed laws which will bring the arid lands of the United States within the area of cultivation.

We have reorganized the army and put it in the highest state of efficiency.

We have passed laws for the improvement and support of the militia.

We have pushed forward the building of the navy, the defense and the protection of our honor and our interests.

Our administration of the great departments of the government has been honest and efficient and wherever wrongdoing has been discovered the Republican administration has not hesitated to probe the evil and bring offenders to justice without regard to party or political ties.

ANTI-TRUST LEGISLATION AND PROTECTIVE TARIFF.

Laws enacted by the Republican party, which the Democratic party failed to enforce and which were intended for the protection of the public against the unjust discrimination of the illegal encroachment of vast aggregations of capital, have been fearlessly enforced by a Republican president and new laws ensuring reasonable publicity as to the operations of great corporations and providing additional remedies for the prevention of discrimination in freight rates have been passed by a Republican congress.

In this record of achievement during the past eight years may be read the pledges which the Republican party has fulfilled. We propose to continue these policies and we declare our constant adherence to the following principles:

Protection, which guards and develops our industries, is a cardinal policy of the Republican party. The measure of protection should always at least equal the difference in the cost of production at home and abroad. We insist upon the maintenance of the principles of protection and, therefore, rates of duty should be readjusted only when conditions have so changed that the public interest demands their alteration, but this work cannot safely be committed to any other hands than those of the Republican party. To entrust it to the Democratic party is to invite disaster. Whether, as in 1892, the Democratic party declares the protective tariff unconstitutional or whether it demands tariff reform or tariff revision its real object is always the destruction of the protective system. However specious the name the purpose is ever the same. A Democratic tariff has always been followed by business adversity; a Republican tariff by business prosperity. To a Republican congress and a Republican president this great question can be safely entrusted. When the only free trade country among the great nations agitates a return to protection the chief protective country should not falter in maintaining it.

We have extended widely our foreign markets and we believe in the adoption of all practicable methods for their further extension, including commercial reciprocity wherever reciprocal arrangements can be effected consistent with the principles of protection and without injury to American agriculture, American labor or any American industry.

REPUBLICAN PARTY WILL UPHOLD GOLD STANDARD.

We believe it to be the duty of the Republican party to uphold the gold standard and the integrity and value of our national currency. The maintaining of the gold standard, established by the Republican party, cannot safely be committed to the Democratic party, which resisted its adoption and has never given any proof since that time of belief in it or fidelity to it.

While every other industry has prospered under the fostering aid of Republican legislation American shipping, engaged in foreign trade in competition with the low cost of construction, low wages and heavy subsidies of foreign governments, has not for many years received from the government of the United States adequate encouragement of any kind. We therefore favor legislation which will encourage and build up the American merchant marine and we cordially approve the legislation of the last congress which created the merchant marine commission to investigate and report upon this subject.

A navy powerful enough to defend the United States against any attack, to uphold the Monroe doctrine and watch over our commerce is essential to the safety and the welfare of the American people. To maintain such a navy is the fixed policy of the Republican party.

We cordially approve the attitude of President Roosevelt and congress in regard to the exclusion of Chinese labor and promise a continuance of the Republican policy in that direction.

The civil service law was placed on the statute books by the Republican party, which has always sustained it, and we renew our former declarations that it shall be thoroughly and honestly enforced.

We are always mindful of the country's debt to the soldiers and sailors of the United States and we believe in making ample provision for them and in the liberal administration of the pension laws.

We favor the peaceful settlement of international differences by arbitration.

PRESENT VIGOROUS FOREIGN POLICY IS COMMENDED.

We commend the vigorous efforts made by the administration to protect American citizens in foreign lands and pledge ourselves to insist upon the just and equal protection of all our citizens abroad. It is the unquestioned duty of the government to procure for all our citizens, without distinction, the rights of travel and sojourn in friendly countries and we declare ourselves in favor of all proper efforts tending to that end.

Our great interests and our growing commerce in the Orient render the condition of China of high importance to the United States. We cordially commend the policy pursued in that direction by the administrations of President McKinley and President Roosevelt.

We favor such congressional action as shall determine whether by special discriminations the elective franchise in any state has been unconstitutionally limited and if such is the case we demand that representation in congress and in the electoral colleges shall be proportionately reduced as directed by the Constitution of the United States.

Combinations of capital and of labor are the results of the economic movement of the age, but neither must be permitted to infringe upon the rights or interests of the people. Such combinations when lawfully formed for lawful purposes are alike entitled to the protection of the laws, but both are subject to the laws and neither can be permitted to break them.

The great statesman and patriotic American, William McKinley, who was re-elected by the Republican party to the presidency four years ago, was assassinated just at the threshold of his second term. The entire nation mourned his untimely death and did that justice to his great qualities of mind and character which history will confirm and repeat.

CONFIDENCE IN PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT EXPRESSED.

The American people were fortunate in his successor, to whom they turned with a trust and confidence which have been fully justified. President Roosevelt brought to the great responsibilities thus sadly forced upon him a clear head, a brave heart, an earnest patriotism and high ideals of public duty and public service. True to the principles of the Republican party and to the policies which that party had declared he has also shown himself ready for every emergency and has met new and vital questions with ability and with success.

The confidence of the people in his justice, inspired by his public career, enabled him to render personally an inestimable service to the country by bringing about a settlement of the coal strike which threatened such disastrous results at the opening of winter in 1902.

Our foreign policy under his administration has not only been able, vigorous and dignified, but in the highest degree successful. The complicated questions which arose in Venezuela were settled in such a way by President Roosevelt that the Monroe doctrine was signally vindicated and the cause of peace and arbitration greatly advanced.

His prompt and vigorous action in Panama, which we commend in the highest terms, not only secured to us the canal route but avoided foreign complications which might have been of a very serious character.

ALASKAN BOUNDARY QUESTION FINALLY AMICABLY SETTLED.

He secured the tribunal by which the vexed and perilous question of the Alaskan boundary was finally settled.

Whenever crimes against humanity have been perpetrated which shocked our people his protest has been made and our good offices have been tendered, but always with due regard to international obligations.

Under his guidance we find ourselves at peace with all the world and never were more respected or our wishes more regarded by foreign nations.

Pre-eminently successful in regard to our foreign relations he has been equally fortunate in dealing with domestic questions. The country has known that the public credit and the national currency were absolutely safe in the hands of his administration. In the enforcement of the laws he has shown not only courage but the wisdom which understands that to permit laws to be violated or disregarded opens the door to anarchy, while the just enforcement of the law is the soundest conservatism. He has held firmly to the fundamental American doctrine that all men must obey the law, that there must be no distinction between rich and poor, between strong and weak, but that justice and equal protection under the law must be secured to every citizen without regard to race, creed or condition.

His administration has been throughout vigorous and honorable, high minded and patriotic. We commend it without reservation to the considerate judgment of the American people.

FAVORITE SONS ELIMINATED.

No Opposition Whatever.

Chicago, June 23.—Entries in the vice presidential race are scratched with great rapidity since the withdrawal of Representative Hitt was announced Wednesday. Colorado, Nebraska, Wisconsin and Missouri have all decided not to place their favorite sons in nomination. It is probable no other nomination than that of Senator Fairbanks will be made.

CONTROL CONVENTION

FROM MINNESOTA.

LIND STOPS THE STAMPEDE

DELEGATES FROM INSTRUCT-
ING FOR HEARST.

Duluth, June 23.—The Democratic state delegate convention held here last evening refused to instruct its delegates for Hearst after his supporters had secured control of the convention. The race between Major Bowler, the Hearst leader of Minneapolis, and T. D. O'Brien, the anti-Hearst candidate for chairman, was extremely close, but the former won out by a margin of 40 votes of the 1,002 present. For a time it looked as though Hearst sentiment would rule in everything and it doubtless would have done so had it not been for a speech of Congressman John Lind, who turned a crowd of excited delegates who clamored for an instructed delegation, to one which expressed itself when the vote came as opposed to instructing for Hearst or any other man.

The anti-Hearst men secured three of the four delegates at large and will get an even break on the district delegates. The delegates at large are: John Lind of Minneapolis, L. A. Rosing of Cannon Falls, H. L. Buck of Winona and C. D. O'Brien of St. Paul.

The district delegates are: First, L. E. Virtue, Steele; Dr. W. W. Mayo, Olmstead; second, F. A. Day, Martin; C. T. Taylor, Mankato; third, J. W. Cravens, Le Sueur; H. H. Gress, Wright; J. G. Armon, Washington; R. T. O'Connor, Ramsey; fifth, F. D. Larabee, J. J. Corrigan, Hennepin; sixth, C. E. Vaseley, Morrison; S. J. Mealey, Wright; seventh, D. H. Evans, Lyon; P. H. O'Hara, Traverse; eighth, Charles D'Autremont, St. Louis; S. W. Sanford, Kanabec; ninth, Alex. Thompson, Polk; C. A. Nye, Clay.

The convention was very stormy and for a time a bolt seemed probable, because of the gavel wielding of Major Bowler.

The resolutions declare for a reaffirmation of the Kansas City platform and laud William J. Bryan as the greatest Democratic statesman of the day.

THE WISCONSIN CASE

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CREDENTIALS FAVORS STALWART FACTION.

Chicago, June 23.—The report of the committee on credentials of the National Republican convention dealt with the Wisconsin situation. Senator McComas of Maryland, chairman of the committee, read a report of the investigation of the contest. He explained in detail that a thorough canvass was made into the merits of the contest, despite the fact that the contestants had withdrawn their claims on the ground that fair treatment could not be had. He said the imputation was directed at the convention itself, and, though resented deeply by the committee, the inquiry was exhaustive and patient. The report closed with a declaration that the "stalwart" faction, led by Senators Spooner and Charles, Representative Babcock and Judge Emil Baensch, as delegates at large, is the regular Republican party in Wisconsin. This national endorsement of the faction headed by the two United States senators from Wisconsin evoked prolonged applause from the delegates.

Madison, Wis., June 23.—"We are going before a higher court and I do not care what the credentials committee concocted in Chicago. The situation is not understood there and the delegates did not want to learn," said Governor La Follette. "Our campaign is ready to go on and we are ready to meet any move the stalwarts may make. The state central committee will meet Friday and we will at once proceed to business. Our dependence is upon the people."

CORTELYOU IN CHICAGO.

Confers With Republican Leaders on Political Matters.

Chicago, June 23.—Secretary Cortelyou arrived in Chicago Wednesday and conferred with Republican leaders at the Chicago club. The new national committee will meet today immediately after the convention adjourns and Mr. Cortelyou will be elected chairman. He desired to confer with committeemen about the selection of the executive committee to manage the campaign, also to discuss establishment of headquarters in New York and Chicago.

Minneapolis, June 23.—W. Ware, janitor of the Bryant school here, threw himself under a street car at Fourth avenue south and Thirty-eighth street at 12:10 this morning and his life was instantly crushed out, the wheels passing over the middle of his body. Motive for suicide unknown.

Chicago, June 23.—Proceedings of

TEXT OF PLATFORM

CAGO CONVENTION.

The platform adopted by the Republican national convention follows:

Fifty years ago the Republican party came into existence, dedicated among other purposes to the great task of arresting the extension on human slavery. In 1860 it elected its first president. During twenty-four of the lican party has held complete control of the government. For eighteen more of the forty-four years it has held partial control through the possession of one or two branches of the government, while the Democratic party during the same period has had complete control for only two years. This long tenure of power by the Republican party is not due to chance. It is a demonstration that the Republican party has commanded the confidence of the American people for nearly two generations to a degree never equaled in our history and has displayed a high capacity for rule and government which has been made even more conspicuous by the incapacity and infirmity of purpose shown by its opponents.

The Republican party entered upon its present period of complete supremacy in 1897. We have every right to congratulate ourselves upon the work since then accomplished, for it has added lustre even to the traditions of the party which carried the government through the storms of civil war.

We then found the country, after four years of Democratic rule, in evil plight, oppressed with misfortune and doubtful of the future. Public credit had been lowered, the revenues were declining, the debt was growing, the administration's attitude toward Spain was feeble and mortifying, the standard of values was threatened and uncertain, labor was unemployed, business was sunk in the depression which had succeeded the panic of 1893, hope was faint and confidence was gone.

PROTECTIVE TARIFF RESULTS IN EXPANSION OF TRADE.

We met these unhappy conditions vigorously, effectively and at once. We replaced a Democratic tariff law based on free trade principles and garnished with sectional protection by a consistent protective tariff and industry freed from oppression and stimulated by the encouragement of wise laws, has expanded to a degree never before known, has conquered our markets and has created a volume of exports which has surpassed imagination.

Under the Dingley tariff labor has been fully employed. Wages have risen and all industries have revived and prospered.

We firmly established the gold standard, which was then menaced with destruction. Confidence returned to business and with confidence an unexpected prosperity.

For deficient revenues supplemented by improvident issues of bonds we gave the country an income which produced a large surplus and which enabled us only four years after the Spanish war had closed to remove over $100,000,000 of annual war taxes, reduce the public debt and lower the interest charges of the government.

The public credit, which had been so lowered that in time of peace a Democratic administration made large loans at extravagant rates of interest in order to pay current expenditures, rose under Republican administration to its highest point and enabled us to borrow at 2 per cent even in time of war.

We refused to falter longer with the miseries of Cuba. We fought a quick and victorious war with Spain. We set Cuba free, governed the island for Cuban people with order restored, United States by wise provisions for our mutual interests.

We have organized the government of Porto Rico and its people now enjoy peace, freedom, order and prosperity.

CIVIL LIBERTY FOR PEOPLE OF THE PHILIPPINES.

In the Philippines we have suppressed insurrection, established order and given to life and property a security never known there before. We have organized civil government, made it effective and strong in administration and have conferred upon the people of those islands the largest civil liberty they have ever enjoyed.

By our possession of the Philippines we were enabled to take prompt and effective action in the relief of the legations at Peking and a decisive part in preventing the partition and the preserving of the integrity of China.

The possession of a route for an isthmian canal, so long the dream of American statesmanship, is now an accomplished fact. The great work of connecting the Pacific and Atlantic oceans by a canal is at last begun and it is due to the Republican party.

We have passed laws which will bring the arid lands of the United States within the area of cultivation.

We have reorganized the army and put it in the highest state of efficiency.

We have passed laws for the improvement and support of the militia.

We have pushed forward the building of the navy, the defense and the protection of our honor and our interests.

Our administration of the great departments of the government has been honest and efficient and wherever wrongdoing has been discovered the Republican administration has not hesitated to probe the evil and bring offenders to justice without regard to party or political ties.

ANTI-TRUST LEGISLATION AND PROTECTIVE TARIFF.

Laws enacted by the Republican party, which the Democratic party failed to enforce and which were intended for the protection of the public against the unjust discrimination of the illegal encroachment of vast aggregations of capital, have been fearlessly enforced by a Republican president and new laws ensuring reasonable publicity as to the operations of great corporations and providing additional remedies for the prevention of discrimination in freight rates have been passed by a Republican congress.

In this record of achievement during the past eight years may be read the pledges which the Republican party has fulfilled. We propose to continue these policies and we declare our constant adherence to the following principles:

Protection, which guards and develops our industries, is a cardinal policy of the Republican party. The measure of protection should always at least equal the difference in the cost of production at home and abroad. We insist upon the maintenance of the principles of protection and, therefore, rates of duty should be readjust-ed only when conditions have so changed that the public interest demands their alteration, but this work cannot safely be committed to any other hands than those of the Republican party. To entrust it to the Democratic party is to invite disaster.
Whether, as in 1892, the Democratic party declares the protective tariff unconstitutional or whether it demands tariff reform or tariff revision its real policy is always the destruction of the protective system. However specious the name the purpose is ever the same.
A Democratic tariff has always been followed by business adversity; a Republican tariff by business prosperity.
To a Republican congress and a Republican president this great question can be safely entrusted. When the only free trade country among the great nations agitates a return to protection the chief protective country should not falter in maintaining it.

We have extended widely our foreign markets and we believe in the adoption of all practicable methods for their further extension, including commercial reciprocity wherever reciprocal arrangements can be effected consistent with the principles of protection and without injury to American agriculture, American labor or any American industry.

REPUBLICAN PARTY WILL UPHOLD GOLD STANDARD.

We believe it to be the duty of the Republican party to uphold the gold standard and the integrity and value of our national currency. The maintaining of the gold standard, established by the Republican party, cannot safely be committed to the Democratic party, which resisted its adoption and has never given any proof since that time of belief in it or fidelity to it.

While every other industry has prospered under the fostering aid of Republican legislation American shipping, engaged in foreign trade in competition with the low cost of construction, low wages and heavy subsidies of foreign governments, has not for many years received from the government of the United States adequate encouragement of any kind. We therefore favor legislation which will encourage and build up the American merchant marine and we cordially approve the legislation of the last congress which created the merchant marine commission to investigate and report upon this subject.

A navy powerful enough to defend the United States against any attack, to uphold the Monroe doctrine and watch over our commerce is essential to the safety and the welfare of the American people. To maintain such a navy is the fixed policy of the Republican party.

We cordially approve the attitude of President Roosevelt and congress in regard to the exclusion of Chinese labor and promise a continuance of the Republican policy in that direction.

The civil service law was placed on the statute books by the Republican party, which has always sustained it, and we renew our former declarations that it shall be thoroughly and honestly enforced.

We are always mindful of the country's debt to the soldiers and sailors of the United States and we believe in making ample provision for them and in the liberal administration of the pension laws.

We favor the peaceful settlement of international differences by arbitration.

PRESENT VIGOROUS FOREIGN POLICY IS COMMENDED.

We commend the vigorous efforts made by the administration to protect American citizens in foreign lands and pledge ourselves to insist upon the just and equal protection of all our citizens abroad. It is the unquestioned duty of the government to procure for all our citizens, without distinction, the rights of travel and sojourn in friendly countries and we declare ourselves in favor of all proper efforts tending to that end.

Our great interests and our growing commerce in the Orient render the condition of China of high importance to the United States. We cordially commend the policy pursued in that direction by the administrations of President McKinley and President Roosevelt.

We favor such congressional action as shall determine whether by special discriminations the elective franchise in any state has been unconstitutionally limited and if such is the case we demand that representation in congress and in the electoral colleges shall be proportionately reduced as directed by the Constitution of the United States.

Combinations of capital and of labor are the results of the economic movement of the age, but neither must be permitted to infringe upon the rights or interests of the people. Such combinations when lawfully formed for lawful purposes are alike entitled to the protection of the laws, but both are subject to the laws and neither can be permitted to break them.

The great statesman and patriot American, William McKinley, who was re-elected by the Republican party to the presidency four years ago, was assassinated just at the threshold of his second term. The entire nation mourned his untimely death and did that justice to his great qualities of mind and character which history will confirm and repeat.

CONFIDENCE IN PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT EXPRESSED.

The American people were fortunate in his successor, to whom they turned with a trust and confidence which have been fully justified. President Roosevelt brought to the great responsibilities thus sadly forced upon him a clear head, a brave heart, an earnest patriotism and high ideals of public duty and public service. True to the principles of the Republican party and to the policies which that party had declared he has also shown himself ready for every emergency and has met new and vital questions with ability and with success.

The confidence of the people in his justice, inspired by his public career, enabled him to render personally an inestimable service to the country by bringing about a settlement of the coal strike which threatened such disastrous results at the opening of winter in 1902.

Our foreign policy under his administration has not only been able, vigorous and dignified, but in the highest degree successful. The complicated questions which arose in Venezuela were settled in such a way by President Roosevelt that the Monroe doctrine was signally vindicated and the cause of peace and arbitration greatly advanced.

His prompt and vigorous action in Panama, which we commend in the highest terms, not only secured to us the canal route but avoided foreign complications which might have been of a very serious character.

ALASKAN BOUNDARY QUESTION FINALLY AMICABLY SETTLED.

He secured the tribunal by which the vexed and perilous question of the Alaskan boundary was finally settled.
Whenever crimes against humanity have been perpetrated which shocked our people his protest has been made and our good offices have been regarded to international obligations.

Under his guidance we find ourselves at peace with all the world and never were we more respected or our wishes more regarded by foreign nations.

Pre-eminently successful in regard to our foreign relations he has been equally fortunate in dealing with domestic questions. The country has known that the public credit and the national currency were absolutely safe in the hands of his administration.
In the enforcement of the laws he has shown not only courage but the wisdom which understands that to permit laws to be violated or disregarded opens the door to anarchy, while the just enforcement of the law is the soundest conservatism. He has held firmly to the fundamental American doctrine that all men must obey the law, that there must be no distinction between rich and poor, between strong and weak, but that justice and equal protection under the law must be secured to every citizen without regard to race, creed or condition.

His administration has been thoroughly vigorous and honorable, high minded and patriotic. We commend it without reservation to the considerate judgment of the American people.

FAVORITE SONS ELIMINATED.

No Opposition Whatever.

Chicago, June 23.—Entries in the vice presidential race are scratched with great rapidity since the withdrawal of Representative Hitt was announced Wednesday. Colorado, Nebraska, Wisconsin and Missouri have all decided not to place their favorite sons in nomination. It is probable no other nomination than that of Senator Fairbanks will be made.

CONTROL CONVENTION

FROM MINNESOTA.

Duluth, June 23.—The Democratic state delegate convention held here last evening refused to instruct its delegates for Hearst after his supporters had secured control of the convention. The race between Major Bowler, the Hearst leader of Minneapolis, and T. D. O'Brien, the anti-Hearst candidate for chairman, was extremely close, but the former won out by a margin of 40 votes of the 1,002 present. For a time it looked as though Hearst sentiment would rule in everything and it doubtless would have done so had it not been for a speech of Congressman John Lind, who turned a crowd of excited delegates who clamored for an instructed delegation, to one which expressed itself when the vote came as opposed to instructing for Hearst or any other man.

The anti-Hearst men secured three of the four delegates at large and will get an even break on the district delegates. The delegates at large are: John Lind of Minneapolis, L. A. Ros-ing of Cannon Falls, H. L. Buck of Winona and C. D. O'Brien of St. Paul.

The district delegates are: First, L. E. Virtue, Steele; Dr. W. W. Mayo, Olmstead; second, F. A. Day, Martin; C. T. Taylor, Mankato; third, J. W.
Cravens, Le Sueur; H. H. Gress, fourth, J. G. Armon, Washington; R.
T. O'Connor, Ramsey; fifth, F. D. Larabee, J. J. Corrigan, Hennepin; sixth, C. E. Vasley, Morrison; S. J. Mealey, Wright; seventh, D. H. Evans, Lyon; P. H. O'Hara, Traverse; eighth, Charles D'Autremont, St. Louis; S. W.
Sanford, Kanabec; ninth, Alex. Thompson, Polk; C. A. Nye, Clay.

The convention was very stormy and for a time a bolt seemed probable, because of the gavel wielding of Major Bowler.

The resolutions declare for a reaffirmation of the Kansas City platform and laud William J. Bryan as the greatest Democratic statesman of the day.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CRE-DENTIALS FAVORS STAL-WART FACTION.

Chicago, June 23.—The report of the committee on credentials of the National Republican convention dealt with the Wisconsin situation. Senator McComas of Maryland, chairman of the committee, read a report of the investigation of the contest. He explained in detail that a thorough canvass was made into the merits of the contest, despite the fact that the contestants had withdrawn their claims on the ground that fair treatment could not be had. He said the imputation was directed at the convention itself, and, though resented deeply by the committee, the inquiry was exhaustive and patient. The report closed with a declaration that the "stalwart" faction, led by Senators Spooner and Charles, Representative Babcock and Judge Emil Baensch, as delegates at large, is the regular Republican party in Wisconsin. This national endorsement of the faction headed by the two United States senators from Wisconsin evoked prolonged applause from the delegates.

Madison, Wis., June 23.—"We are going before a higher court and I do not care what the credentials committee concocted in Chicago. The situation is not understood there and the delegates did not want to learn," said Governor LaFollette. "Our campaign is ready to go on and we are ready to meet any move the stalwarts may make. The state central committee will meet Friday and we will at once proceed to business. Our dependence is upon the people."

CORTELYOU IN CHICAGO.

Confers With Republican Leaders on Political Matters.

Chicago, June 23.—Secretary Cortel-you arrived in Chicago Wednesday and conferred with Republican leaders at the Chicago club. The new national committee will meet today immediately after the convention adjourns and Mr. Cortelyou will be elected chairman. He desired to confer with committeemen about the selection of the executive committee to manage the campaign, also to discuss establishment of headquarters in New York and Chicago.

Minneapolis Man Suicides.

Minneapolis, June 23.—W. Ware, janitor of the Bryant school here, threw himself under a street car at Fourth avenue south and Thirty-eighth street at 12:10 this morning and his life was instantly crushed out, the wheels passing over the middle of his body. Motive for suicide unknown.

Forecast—Showers and cooler tomorrow.

Temperature (Record kept by Dr. J. L. Camp from 7 a. m. yesterday morning to 7 a. m. this morning)—Maximum 81 above zero; minimum 60 above zero.

MINNESOTA is not for Hearst, and that helps some.

R. C. DUNN stands on his record as a public official which needs no apology or defense and the voters of Minnesota know it.

EVERY Dunn supporter in the city should make himself a committee of one to see that his friends get out to the caucuses Saturday night.

Crow Wing county was recognized in the democratic convention at Duluth by the election of Con O'Brien as an alternate to the national democratic convention at St. Louis.

Bob Dunn's home town of Princeton voluntarily made up a purse of $5,000 and presented it to him as a campaign fund when he announced his candidacy for governor. The people that have lived neighbor to Bob Dunn and who know him are his friends, and a man's worth is best known by those who are intimately acquainted with him. In his home town he is loved for his worth as a citizen and a man. His nomination for governor will be a fitting tribute.

THE Bemidji Pioneer says that the remark of Gov. Van Sant that the timber trespassing investigations conducted by Public Examiner Johnson were not begun for political effect. He says the legislature ordered them. There is something peculiar however in the fact that the investigation is delayed until report is made exactly at the time when whatever political effect it may have will be most forceful. Any man with the average amount of brains could have made the investigation in a few days—not so the public examiner. Everybody in Minnesota knows too that after June 30, no matter who is nominated for governor, there will be no more timber investigations. It is easy to see that the investigations were not made for political effect—strange that Governor Van Sant should go out of his way to tell us so.

ENTITLED TO A SECOND TERM

The Brandon (Douglas county) Echo says: They say Buckman is at present keeping one eye on his extensive farming interests. We surmise the other optic is focused on the gentleman from Meeker county by the name of Foster. Buckman has proved himself a painstaking public servant at Washington and nothing which was of interest to his constituents was overlooked nor a request too small to enlist his personal attention. Buckman is entitled to a second term and we believe he will prove a sure winner in the primaries—the election is easy.

STANDS UP FOR HIS FRIEND

Yes sir, of course I am for Bob Dunn, said W. A. Fleming to a DISPATCH man this morning. While I am not in politics very much I would be ashamed to not do what little I can for a man who has always been a friend of Crow Wing county. He has made our county's fights his fights and has many times put himself out to do us a friendly turn. He should have the support of every man in the county. And when any man says that Bob Dunn is not honest or charges him with being crooked, that man either don't know Bob Dunn or is a liar. I've seen him tried many times and I know what I am talking about when I say that a more faithful official don't live. Yes, I was at that sale which the Arena has so much to say about, and I know that there was nothing wrong about it. Mr. Drocher has told me many times that he was satisfied that the sale was all right. It is not in Bob Dunn's bones to be dishonest, and before he became a candidate the very papers that are now saying such unpleasant things about him were full of praise for Mr. Dunn. Why, the last campaign of the state was carried on with Bob Dunn's record as state auditor.

Prompt Decision.

The secret of getting through work is method. Order, it has been said, is God's first law. Let it be yours. Do not let your work accumulate upon your hands. It is not work that kills, but arrears of work. Work put off is work put on with heavy interest. "Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof." It becomes intolerable if it be laid upon tomorrow.

If I may recommend you three rules for saving time and economizing strength they shall be these: Answer letters, keep appointments, make up your minds. In the affairs of this life a prompt decision is often more important than a right decision. One man makes up his mind and acts, it may be, wrongly, but if so he finds out his mistake, corrects and retrieves it before another man has acted at all. It is possible to waste a great amount of time by thinking, and still more by talking over actions. First thoughts are sometimes wiser than second and generally wiser than third.—Contemporary Review.

Sir Philip Francis at Cards.

Francis, the Sir Philip Francis whom many ingenious critics have, in defiance of probability, insisted on identifying with the author of the letters of Junius, was an inveterate gambler. Cards dominated over the whole Anglo-Indian society of Calcutta in those days, and many a crime inflicted on the unhappy natives had its origin in the losses at the gaming table of their alien rulers.

When in India, it was the habit of Francis to spend every night in this amusement, and he found an able coadjutor at the card table in the wife of his colleagues, Lady Anne Monson, who was reckoned "a very superior whist player." Good fortune generally shone on the plans of Francis. About 1775 he was visited with "an extraordinary run of luck," so marked indeed that he had "actually won a fortune." Rumor, which sometimes exaggerates, went so far as to estimate his gains at 30 lacs of rupees.—Temple Bar.

He Wouldn't Miss Prayer.

When Professor Tucker was "Tutor" Tucker at Bowdoin college the bell rang for prayers at the chapel, as now, very early in the morning, and it was imperative upon tutors and pupils to respond. As a tutor Mr. Tucker was very popular, although very strict, and he was always prompt to take his place at the head of his class at the early morning devotions.

One morning, however, he found his clothing gone and his door nailed while the bell was ringing. Finding a hatchet he soon split the door down, and at the last stroke of the bell appeared, clothed in his shirt and a pair of overalls, barefooted, but with a smile of serenity on his expressive countenance. He took his customary place, and neither then nor afterward were words of complaint heard from him.

City of Contradictions.

Lassa is a city of magnificent buildings, where the streets are never repaired and, except for a slight cleaning in January and March of the Tibetan calendar, are dreadfully dirty. Everywhere people are laden with rich ornaments, but unwashed as Caverley's organ grinder. A vast Buddhist temple stands in the center of the city, and it is encircled by a street lined with shops and roadside vendors. Both men and women are enthusiastic traders, and especially striking is the sight of Buddhist priests selling divers merchandise at roadside stalls, with the sleeves of their clerical robes rolled high up their arms.—London Globe.

The British Empire.

The British empire occupies about one-fifth of the surface of the habitable globe and consists of the United Kingdom, with its attendant islands, and about forty-three dependencies under separate and independent governments varying in size from Canada, which is thirty times the size of the United Kingdom, to Gibraltar, the area of which is two square miles. Thus the area of the British empire is ninety-eight times that of the United Kingdom, while the area of the self governing colonies alone is nearly sixty times as large as that of the mother country.—Lord Thring in Nineteenth Century.

were not begun for political effect. He says the legislature ordered them. There is something peculiar however in the fact that the investigation is delayed until report is made exactly at the time when whatever political effect it may have will be most forceful. Any man with the average amount of brains could have made the investigation in a few days—not so the public examiner. Everybody in Minnesota knows too that after June 30, no matter who is nominated for governor, there will be no more timber investigations. It is easy to see that the investigations were not made for political effect—strange that Governor Van Sant should go out of his way to tell us so.

ENTITLED TO A SECOND TERM
 The Brandon (Douglas county) Echo says: They say Buckman is at present keeping one eye on his extensive farming interests. We surmise the other optic is focused on the gentleman from Meeker county by the name of Foster. Buckman has proved himself a painstaking public servant at Washington and nothing which was of interest to his constituents was overlooked nor a request too small to enlist his personal attention. Buckman is entitled to a second term and we believe he will prove a sure winner in the primaries—the election is easy.

STANDS UP FOR HIS FRIEND
 Yes sir, of course I am for Bob Dunn, said W. A. Fleming to a DISPATCH man this morning. While I am not in politics very much I would be ashamed to not do what little I can for a man who has always been a friend of Crow Wing county. He has made our county's fights his fights and has many times put himself out to do us a friendly turn. He should have the support of every man in the county. And when any man says that Bob Dunn is not honest or charges him with being crooked, that man either don't know Bob Dunn or is a liar. I've seen him tried many times and I know what I am talking about when I say that a more faithful official don't live. Yes, I was at that sale which the Arena has so much to say about, and I know that there was nothing wrong about it. Mr. Drocher has told me many times that he was satisfied that the sale was all right. It is not in Bob Dunn's bones to be dishonest, and before he became a candidate the very papers that are now saying such unpleasant things about him were full of praise for Mr. Dunn. Why, the last campaign of the state was carried on with Bob Dunn's record as state auditor.

Prompt Decision.
 The secret of getting through work is method. Order, it has been said, is God's first law. Let it be yours. Do not let your work accumulate upon your hands. It is not work that kills, but arrears of work. Work put off is work put on with heavy interest. "Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof." It becomes intolerable if it be laid upon tomorrow.

If I may recommend you three rules for saving time and economizing strength they shall be these: Answer letters, keep appointments, make up your minds. In the affairs of this life a prompt decision is often more important than a right decision. One man makes up his mind and acts, it may be, wrongly, but if so he finds out his mistake, corrects and retrieves it before another man has acted at all. It is possible to waste a great amount of time by thinking, and still more by talking over actions. First thoughts are sometimes wiser than second and generally wiser than third.—Contemporary Review.

Sir Philip Francis at Cards.
 Francis, the Sir Philip Francis whom many ingenious critics have, in defiance of probability, insisted on identifying with the author of the letters of Junius, was an inveterate gambler. Cards dominated over the whole Anglo-Indian society of Calcutta in those days, and many a crime inflicted on the unhappy natives had its origin in the losses at the gaming table of their alien rulers.

When in India, it was the habit of Francis to spend every night in this amusement, and he found an able coadjutor at the card table in the wife of his colleagues, Lady Anne Monson, who was reckoned "a very superior whist player." Good fortune generally shone on the plans of Francis. About 1775 he was visited with "an extraordinary run of luck," so marked indeed that he had "actually won a fortune." Rumor, which sometimes exaggerates, went so far as to estimate his gains at 30 lacs of rupees.—Temple Bar.

He Wouldn't Miss Prayer.
 When Professor Tucker was "Tutor" Tucker at Bowdoin college the bell rang for prayers at the chapel, as now, very early in the morning, and it was imperative upon tutors and pupils to respond. As a tutor Mr. Tucker was very popular, although very strict, and he was always prompt to take his place at the head of his class at the early morning devotions.
 One morning, however, he found his clothing gone and his door nailed while the bell was ringing. Finding a hatchet he soon split the door down, and at the last stroke of the bell appeared, clothed in his shirt and a pair of overalls, barefooted, but with a smile of serenity on his expressive countenance. He took his customary place, and neither then nor afterward were words of complaint heard from him.

City of Contradictions.
 Lassa is a city of magnificent buildings, where the streets are never repaired and, except for a slight cleaning in January and March of the Tibetan calendar, are dreadfully dirty. Everywhere people are laden with rich ornaments, but unwashed as Caverley's organ grinder. A vast Buddhist temple stands in the center of the city, and it is encircled by a street lined with shops and roadside vendors. Both men and women are enthusiastic traders, and especially striking is the sight of Buddhist priests selling divers merchandise at roadside stalls, with the sleeves of their clerical robes rolled high up their arms.—London Globe.

The British Empire.
 The British empire occupies about one-fifth of the surface of the habitable globe and consists of the United Kingdom, with its attendant islands, and about forty-three dependencies under separate and independent governments varying in size from Canada, which is thirty times the size of the United Kingdom, to Gibraltar, the area of which is two square miles. Thus the area of the British empire is ninety-eight times that of the United Kingdom, while the area of the self governing colonies alone is nearly sixty times as large as that of the mother country.—Lord Thring in Nineteenth Century.

UNTIMELY DEATH OF YOUNG MAN

William Poppenberg, Age 17 Years, Son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Poppenberg.

Died this Morning at Early Hour.

William Poppenberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Poppenberg, Sr., died this morning at 3 o'clock at the Northern Pacific hospital and a large circle of relatives and friends are called upon to mourn one who will be greatly missed in many ways. The young man was taken sick sometime ago and was taken to the Northern Pacific Sanitarium where he was operated on for appendicitis. He got out too soon after the operation, it is thought, and was taken with typhoid-pneumonia and lingered for days at the point of death. He did not recover very rapidly and symptoms of another ailment began to show themselves and upon investigation it was found that an abscess had formed on his liver. With all these ailments it seemed like a hopeless cause to try and save the young man's life. He lingered, however, until this morning at 3 o'clock when he passed away.

William Poppenberg was 17 years of age and had made his home in this city all his life. He had for some time been employed as an apprentice in the boiler works at the N. P. shops and he was universally liked by all the younger element about the shops as well as the older men. He was a favorite wherever he was placed and had a large circle of friends. The sympathy of the community is with the bereaved parents and brothers and sisters, who were called upon only a month or two ago to mourn over the demise of another son and brother, Conrad Poppenberg.

The funeral services will be held Saturday morning at 9 o'clock from St. Francis Catholic church.

Excursion Train Will Leave the City Tomorrow Morning Promptly at 8 O'clock

People of Walker Have Arranged a Great Program for Pleasure of Elks

Tomorrow is the date of the big Elks' outing and picnic at Walker and the committee on entertainment has been busy the past week or two making arrangements for the event. It will be one the very best days since the organization of the order in this city and a large number of Elks and their families are planning to go.

The train will leave the N. P. depot in this city at 8 o'clock sharp and the tickets will be only $1. All who intend going should notify the different members of the committee tonight, but of course this will not prevent them from going tomorrow.

The people of Walker have made extensive arrangements for the day and a program of sports will be enjoyed seldom equaled, besides the boating and fishing and a visit to interesting points about Leech lake. The Elk base ball team will play the Walker team in the morning. The Elk band will accompany the excursionists.

FRANK WILLIAMS WAS TAKEN BACK

Sheriff Bailey, of Bemidji, Arrived in the City Yesterday Afternoon After Prisoner

WILLIAMS HAS BAD RECORD

He Will Now Get a Long Term, in All Probability, in the Pen at Stillwater

Sheriff Bailey, of Bemidji, was in the city yesterday after Frank Williams, the man wanted in that city charged with burglary and breaking jail and he was taken back to the county seat of Beltrami county on the afternoon train, where he will probably be given a long sentence in Stillwater for his depredations.

Williams was charged with burglary over two years ago and had been held to the grand jury on the charge. Just before the grand jury which was to consider his case convened Williams broke jail and all efforts to capture him seemed futile, until about a week ago Captain Hurley, of the local police force saw the man in this city, and recognized him as the man wanted at Bemidji.

When arrested here by Officer Hurley Williams put up quite a scrap and the officer had quite a time landing him in jail. He gave his name here as Zeb Taylor. He is a bad character and is thought to be a much wanted man in several cities in the northwest. He was engaged in selling cheap jewelry on the streets when taken in tow by Officer Hurley.

Notice.

I have had imperative orders to enforce the bicycle ordinance. Anyone caught riding on the path without a bicycle tag after this date will be arrested and dealt with according to law.

A SALARIED CHAIRMAN

Salaried Chairman System Has Been Adopted by Northern Pacific Engineers

JOHN HORN A CANDIDATE

There is a Three Corned Fight on Which is Being Waged Rather Fiercely.

The locomotive engineers of the Northern Pacific have voted to adopt the salaried chairman system and a merry fight for that position is now on. Final action regarding the salaried chairman system has been taken by the engineers and it was voted almost unanimously to hire a chairman to devote all his time to the work of the order.

As was stated in yesterday's St. Paul Globe, Chairman Herder is a candidate for re-election. He will have two opponents, John Horn, of Brainerd, and C. H. Barrett, of Bismarck. Both the latter candidates are in St. Paul and are doing considerable electioneering among the delegates.

From a trustworthy source it was learned last night that Mr. Horn will probably be selected to fill the position. He is said to have more than a third of the delegates pledged to his support and hopes to gain a decided majority after the first few ballots. Herder, too, is considered a strong candidate, as many of the engineers think that he should have at least one term as salaried chairman, as he has served without pay.

While nothing definite could be learned from the officers of the brotherhood, an engineer last night said that it has been voted to pay the new chairman a salary of $2,400 a year. This is the same amount as is paid to the chairman of the Great Northern trainmen.

The fairly large salary may cause several other engineers to announce themselves as candidates before a selection is made, as the vote on the question will not come up until near the close of the present session.

The three-cornered fight, which is now being waged for the position, is one of the bitterest contests ever fought in the brotherhood.

Worst of all Experiences.

Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last? Such was the experience of Mrs. S. H. Newson, Decatur, Ala. "For three years" she writes, "I endured insufferable pain from indigestion, stomach and bowel trouble. Death seemed inevitable when doctors and all remedies failed. At length I was induced to try Electric Bitters and the result was miraculous. I improved at once and now I'm completely recovered." For liver, kidney, stomach and bowel troubles Electric Bitters is the only medicine. Only 50c. It's guaranteed by H. P. Dunn & Co., druggists.

UNTIMELY DEATH OF YOUNG MAN

William Poppenberg, Age 17 Years, Son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Poppenberg, Died this Morning at Early Hour.

William Poppenberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Poppenberg, Sr., died this morning at 3 o'clock at the Northern Pacific hospital and a large circle of relatives and friends are called upon to mourn one who will be greatly missed in many ways. The young man was taken sick sometime ago and was taken to the Northern Pacific Sanitarium where he was operated on for appendicitis. He got out too soon after the operation, it is thought, and was taken with typhoid pneumonia and lingered for days at the point of death. He did not recover very rapidly and symptoms of another ailment began to show themselves and upon investigation it was found that an abscess had formed on his liver. With all these ailments it seemed like a hopeless cause to try and save the young man's life. He lingered, however, until this morning at 3 o'clock when he passed away.

William Poppenberg was 17 years of age and had made his home in this city all his life. He had for some time been employed as an apprentice in the boiler works at the N. P. shops and he was universally liked by all the younger element about the shops as well as the older men. He was a favorite wherever he was placed and had a large circle of friends. The sympathy of the community is with the bereaved parents and brothers and sisters, who were called upon only a month or two ago to mourn over the demise of another son and brother, Conrad Poppenberg. The funeral services will be held Saturday morning at 9 o'clock from St. Francis Catholic church.

B. P. O. E. WILL GO TO WALKER

WILL BE GREAT OUTING DAY

Tomorrow is the date of the big Elks' outing and picnic at Walker and the committee on entertainment has been busy the past week or two making arrangements for the event. It will be one of the very best days since the organization of the order in this city and a large number of Elks and their families are planning to go.

The train will leave the N. P. depot in this city at 8 o'clock sharp and the tickets will be only $1. All who intend going should notify the different members of the committee tonight, but of course this will not prevent them from going tomorrow.

The people of Walker have made extensive arrangements for the day and a program of sports will be enjoyed seldom equaled, besides the boating and fishing and a visit to interesting points about Leech lake. The Elk base ball team will play the Walker team in the morning. The Elk band will accompany the excursionists.

FRANK WILLIAMS WAS TAKEN BACK

Sheriff Bailey, of Bemidji, Arrived in the City Yesterday Afternoon After Prisoner

WILLIAMS HAS BAD RECORD

He Will Now Get a Long Term, in All Probability, in the Pen at Stillwater

Sheriff Bailey, of Bemidji, was in the city yesterday after Frank Williams, the man wanted in that city charged with burglary and breaking jail and he was taken back to the county seat of Beltrami county on the afternoon train, where he will probably be given a long sentence in Stillwater for his depredations.

Williams was charged with burglary over two years ago and had been held to the grand jury on the charge. Just before the grand jury which was to consider his case convened Williams broke jail and all efforts to capture him seemed futile, until about a week ago Captain Hurley, of the local police force saw the man in this city, and recognized him as the man wanted at Bemidji.

When arrested here by Officer Hurley Williams put up quite a scrap and the officer had quite a time landing him in jail. He gave his name here as Zeb Taylor. He is a bad character and is thought to be a much wanted man in several cities in the northwest. He was engaged in selling cheap jewelry on the streets when taken in tow by Officer Hurley.

RUSSIANS IN RETREAT

SEVERE FIGHTING RESULTS IN

SAMSONOFF.

VICTORS STEADILY ADVANCE

PRESSING NORTHWARD TO-

WARD KAICHOW.

Kaichow, June 23.—Severe fighting has occurred south and southeast of this city, and the Russians under General Samsonoff are retiring rapidly before the Japanese advance. Two Japanese columns are only a few miles south of this point and pressing northward steadily. Heavy cannonading was heard to the southeast Wednesday and it is known that Russian infantry made a brief stand, from which they were driven by the shells of the enemy.

Both Japanese divisions are well equipped with mountain batteries as

STRONGLY ESTABLISHED.

Japanese Army Base From Kaichow to Yentai.

Liaoyang, June 23.—The Japanese army base at Siyuen is evidently strongly established along a line from Kaichow to Yentai.

Rumors of a battle northeast of Kaichow are evidently correct.

The Japanese this week advanced to a point sixteen miles east of Kaichow, but retired.

It is presumed that General Oku is now advancing to the north by the way of Fuchow and the coast road, thus enabling him to obtain provisions from the sea.

Spectators at the battle of Vafang-ten say that on one occasion they saw three horsemen appear on a hill, one of whom, according to a Russian officer, resembled either an American or British attaché, fell from his horse when the Russians fired, and was evidently killed.

The Russian losses at Vafangow are expected to total 3,500.

The Japanese fleet is probably cooperating with General Oku's advance along the coast. The two Japanese armies threaten momentarily to attempt a juncture, assisted by a force on the north shore of the Gulf of Liatung.

BATTLE NEAR AT HAND.

Russians Expect Fighting on Liaotung Peninsula.

St. Petersburg, June 23.—Imminence of a battle in the northern part of the Liaotung peninsula is admitted by the war office and is indicated succinctly in press dispatches from Liaotung, Kai-ping and other points on the railroad.
The week of skirmishing around Siyuen retarded General Kuroki's operations, permitting General Stakelberg to reach Kaichow, the rear guard under Samsonoff slowly falling back on Su-chen before the Japanese advance.

Meanwhile large forces are pouring south from Liaoyang to check General Oku and General Kuroki.

It is believed that General Kuropatkin's object is to prevent a juncture of the Japanese armies. The aim of the Japanese apparently is to drive the Russians out of the Liaotung peninsula, preparatory to a march on Lia-yang. The approach of the rainy season will more than likely hasten action.

RUSSIAN FORCE AMBUSHED.

Lose Twelve Hundred Men in Fight Near Kaichow.

London, June 23.—A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Newchwang says: While a Russian force of 8,000 under General Kondratschik was travers-ing Wafungko ravine, nine miles southeast of Kaichow, June 19, it was surprised by concealed Japanese artillery.

The Russians lost heavily, their casualties being 1,200 in number.

General Kondratschik extricated his men and led them in good order to an entrenched position.

Naval Operations Believed to Be Imminent in the Far East.

St. Petersburg, June 23.—Important naval developments are imminent in the far East.

The admiralty has no news of the reported loss of two Russian torpedo boat destroyers off Port Arthur. The latest dispatch from Rear Admiral Witsoeff, in command of the naval forces at Port Arthur, dated June 17, reports all well there.

Bandit Raisal Increases His Demands on Government.

London, June 23.—The Daily Telegraph's Tangier correspondent says there is another hitch, and the order for sending forward the prisoners has been countermanded. Raisal has demanded another province. When Per-dicaris is released he will be brought to his town house, where his wife is ill, suffering from the treatment she received at the hands of the brigands at the time the capture was made.
What will follow the release of the captives it is impossible to say.

Twelve Persons Injured in Accident at St. Louis.

St. Louis, June 23.—An explosion, presumably of gasoline, in the grocery of the W. E. Reid company Wednesday caused the collapse of the two-story brick building and injured twelve persons, none seriously.

Reid and his partner Mathew Forster, a clerk, three customers and Forster's wife and five children were caught beneath the wreckage.

LIFE PRESERVERS WERE OLD.

Those on the General Slocum Purchased Years Ago.

New York, June 23.—That the steamer General Slocum had no life preservers aboard less than nine years old was admitted by counsel for the Knickerbocker Steamship company at the inquest Wednesday. Miss Hall, bookkeeper of the company, had testified concerning several bills for preservers.
In which she had erased the name "Grand Republic," the sister ship of the Slocum, and substituted that of the Slocum. Notwithstanding this, counsel for the company said they would make the admission as to the age of the belts as they were unable to prove to the contrary. Evidence was also brought out that the United States inspectors did not examine the fire hose and standpipes, and that the preservers were not in good shape.

Wednesday thirty-seven victims of the Slocum disaster came to the surface, making the total number recovered 882. Of these, 778 have been identified. Definite figures as to the number missing cannot be given, but the death toll will total nearly 1,000.
Today nearly 100 policemen who speak German will begin a house to house canvass for the purpose of verifying the list of the missing.

KILLS HIS WIFE AND CHILD.

Michigan Man Then Ends His Own Life With a Bullet.

Ludington, Mich., June 23.—Rier Smith, aged twenty-four, shot and instantly killed his young wife, who was living on a nearby farm. As the woman fell, a ten-months-old baby dropped from her arms to the ground.
Instantly the infuriated man put a bullet through the infant's head with fatal results. He then turned the weapon on himself, inflicting a wound from which he died in a few hours.
Smith's wife had not been living with him for some time and it is thought the murder followed her refusal to return to him.

Texas Instructs for Parker.

San Antonio, Tex., June 23.—The Texas Democratic convention Wednesday instructed its delegation to the national convention to vote for Judge Alton B. Parker for presidential nominee and to vote as a unit on all questions.

Fatal Fire in Illinois.

Quincy, Ill., June 23.—In a fire in the Tremont house Wednesday night Miss Elizabeth Welch met death by suffocation and her sister, Miss Mary Welch, and Edith Simon, a cook, were probably fatally burned.

BEAUTIES OF MILLE LACS LAKE

Several Well Known Brainerdites

Visit Midland and Other

Points of Interest

AND WERE HIGHLY DELIGHTED

Traverse the Shore of the Great

Lake all Day Long and See

Interesting Sight

The following account of a trip around Mille Lacs Lake is taken from the Mille Lacs Pioneer:

"Upon invitation of Captain McLaughlin we boarded the handsome and trusty little steamer 'Remnica' last Saturday afternoon for a pleasure trip around Mille Lacs. The gallant boat glided out of her harbor at 4:30 p. m. with Jay Avery as pilot and George Orton as engineer.

"We had hardly settled down to the enjoyment of the ride, when we were surprised to find ourselves passing Vineland and a few minutes later Mount Pleasant was sighted. Mount Pleasant is the highest elevation about the lake being, as we were informed, about 300 feet above the level of the lake. It is in the vicinity of Midland and stands back about two miles from the shore. We were told that in the fall of the year, when the leaves are off the trees, a beautiful view, including the entire water surface of Mille Lacs and of twenty small lakes in the surrounding country, can be had from the summit of this elevation. We were just getting nicely interested in a description of this interesting spot, which has lately come into the possession of Emmett Mark, of Princeton, when the speedy little steamer came to a stop. We were at Midland, and upon consulting our watch found that we had made the trip, a distance of 20 to 25 miles, in one hour and forty minutes.

"This was our first visit to Midland and we found it to be one of the beauty spots of Mille Lacs. The town was founded by Abe Mark, formerly of Princeton, a whole-some energetic fellow and a genuine hustler of the earth.
The townsite is laid out on broad and liberal lines. It extends back from Mille Lacs lake about three-fourths of a mile to Borden lake on the west. It is level and covered with a fine grove of maple, oak and basswood timber. There is a fine base ball park and a race track near the lake shore, and several blocks are reserved in the center of the town for park purposes. The lots are 50 by 175 feet, with streets 100 feet wide and alleys 50 feet. Central avenue and Broadway are 150 feet wide one running east and west, and the other north and south through the center of the townsite, affording a fine boulevard system.

"We put up for the night at 'Hotel Midland' and found the proprietor, Mr.
H. F. Mann, a genial and accommodating gentleman. The table was parexcellence, and we were provided with a clean airy room and a soft bed. Landlord Mann conducts an attractive and up to date hostelry, and looks well to the comfort of his guests. His building is large and commodious, and the interior is finished in hard-wood throughout. It affords a large office, parlor, dining-room etc., downstairs, and about twenty sleeping apartments on the second floor, also toilet and bath room, making it a modern country hotel. We found Mr. E. A.
Ryder, formerly of Vineland, engaged in the general store business here. His store building is 30 by 60 feet, with a large public hall overhead. He has also just completed a cozy residence. He appears to be doing a prosperous business which will doubtless continue to increase as the country develops.

"Mr. G. A. McLaughlin is establishing a fine creamery here. The building is now completed and a Mr. Shelton, an expert butter maker from Wisconsin, is now at work placing the machinery in order, and within a week from the time you read this the Midland Creamery butter will find its way to the eastern market. The best dairy butter is now selling at the Midland store for 10 cents per pound, and it is no wonder that the farmers of that vicinity are enthusing over the coming of the creamery, as 10 and 12 cent butter will be a thing of the past as soon as the creamery is put in operation. Truly Mr. McLaughlin is doing a great deal of good, not only for Midland, but the whole lake country, as his boat will make daily trips around the lake, carrying passengers and freight, and gathering cream from the different shore points. Midland is certainly a point not to be overlooked in making a tour of the lake country.

"After a good night's rest and a hearty breakfast we strolled down to the lake shore to glance over Mille Lacs, from a Crow Wing county point of view. A few minutes later we were greeted by the familiar voice of Abe Mark. He had just arrived as the advance guard of a party of pleasure seekers from Brainerd who, by previous arrangement, were to make a tour of the lake on that day. It had been planned to start on the trip at eight o'clock but, owing to some hitch, it was about eleven before the 'Rem-nica' raised anchor and steamed out of the harbor. The day was an ideal one, sunshiny and calm, and could not have been improved upon if made to order for the occasion. The jolly crowd aboard the boat consisted of Judge Geo.

W. Holland, Abe Mark, F. E. Kenney, Charles Swanson, R. H. Paine, Peter Walters, Geo. Abbott, John Olson, L. S.
Budd, Jas. McGinnis, Chas. Wilkins, John McCarthy, Miss Lottie White, and Miss Katie McClarran, all of Brainerd; A. L. Oppenheim, of Chicago, T. F.
Norton, of Cove, and Captain McLaughlin and crew.

"The first stop was made at Nichols P. O., which is nothing more or less than a fine farm home situated in a beautiful grove of oaks, which has been thoroughly underbrushed and sowed to tame grass. Insignificant as Nichols is in point of size yet it enjoys the distinction of being the only point above the lake that has a telephone connection, and a long distance one at that. Chas.
Swanson, Abe Mark, and the writer went ashore at this point. Mr. Swanson rang up the National Hotel at Brainerd, of which he is proprietor, giving orders for its management during his absence. Mr. Mark tried to call up a Wall street broker in New York with a view to selling him a corner lot in Midland, and left the phone smoging. It was the Pioneer man's turn next, and we were making a desperate effort to gather the Associated Press reports for our next issue, when we were suddenly rung off by the shrill whistle of the Remnica, warning us that our time was up at Nichols, and a lively sprint was made to regain the boat. Upon reaching it, complaint was entered against the trio by Col. Kenney on a charge of Sabbathbreaking and detention of the boat for frivolous purposes. Judge Holland found all guilty, but withheld sentence until Prison Island, where Father Hennepin is reported to have been kept a prisoner for a time by the Indians, should be reached.

"Everybody was beginning to have a pretty good appetite worked up by the time Wealthwood was reached at about 1 p. m., and a stop for dinner was to have been made at that place. For some reason, however, the landlord there was unable to entertain the party, who were obliged to live on the anticipation of something to eat for a while longer.
Wealthwood is distinguished chiefly for its 'cullud' settlement. An attempt was made to establish a negro colony there several years ago, and we were told that there are five or six colored families living there now, but we failed to see even one 'little Alabama coon' on the shore, and being unable to get anything to eat, the boat was headed for Isle Harbor omitting Malmo, which had been included in the list of landings. Fearing that the judge might sentence the Sabbath breakers to confinement on Prison Island, Captain McLaughlin was got next to and was induced to skip that dread spot entirely.

"A short stop was made at Big Point on the east shore, which is certainly a charming spot. T. H. Caley, of Princeton, is the owner of forty-five acres of the finest part of this point, and can boats of having the most graceful grove of elms to be found on the shore of Mille Lacs, which is saying a great deal. The next stop was made at Isle Harbor dock, where a large crowd boarded the boat and accompanied it as far as Charley Malone's place, Chas. Wicklander acting as special pilot in entering Malone harbor. It was a hungry crowd that swooped down upon Charley and he had to move at a lively rate to keep pace with the demand for crackers, cheese, sardines, salmon, etc., after which the Brainerd party's taste turned to moccasins and Indian bead work.

"Mr. Malone carries a large stock of general merchandise in his store and conducts a fine hotel and it was very much regretted that the want of time prevented the party from waiting for a regular dinner there. It was the general verdict that Malone's beautiful buildings, well kept grove and picturesque island could not be out-rivalled by anything seen about the lake thus far.

"It was intended to visit Lawrence, Mossomonie Point and Murray Beach, but owing to the late start from Midland, time would not admit of it and it was decided to steer direct to Cove and thence to Midland. As the afternoon was wearing well along and there was still a long trip ahead, the cry of 'all aboard for Cove' was sounded and the boat left the Isle dock at 5:45 p. m.
Just outside Isle harbor, upon suggestion of Judge Holland, an important document was drawn up, conceding Col.
Kenney to be the best story teller and all 'round entertainer on the boat, while Abe Mark was credited with being the most truthful yarn spinner of the lot.
This was certified to by the signatures of all on board, sealed securely in a pickle bottle and consigned by the judge, with due ceremony, to the blue waters of Mille Lacs. Chas. Swanson, of the National hotel at Brainerd, will give a liberal reward to anyone finding the aforesaid pickle bottle.

"The boat moved along rapidly, revealing more and more of the scenery of wooded shore which makes the wealth all about the lake a panorama of surpassing charm. The view of the archipelago near Lawrence presented a picture not soon to be forgotten. At 6:30 our own beautiful Mossomonie Point was rounded and a few minutes later the Remnica again glided into Cove harbor, just as the sun was beginning to drop in the west, having completed since the previous evening, a 75-mile trip over

RUSSIANS IN RETREAT

WARD KAIPING.

Kaiping, June 23.—Severe fighting has occurred south and southeast of this city, and the Russians under General Samsonoff are retiring rapidly before the Japanese advance. Two Japanese columns are only a few miles south of this point and pressing northward steadily. Heavy cannonading was heard to the southeast Wednesday and it is known that Russian infantry made a brief stand, from which they were driven by the shells of the enemy.

Both Japanese divisions are well equipped with mountain batteries as well as with heavier field artillery.

STRONGLY ESTABLISHED.

Japanese Army Base From Kaichou to Yentai.

Liaoyang, June 23.—The Japanese army base at Shuyen is evidently strongly established along a line from Kaichou to Yentai.

Rumors of a battle northeast of Kaichou are evidently correct.

The Japanese this week advanced to a point sixteen miles east of Kaichou, but retired.

It is presumed that General Oku is now advancing to the north by the way of Fuchou and the coast road, thus enabling him to obtain provisions from the sea.

Spectators at the battle of Vafang-tien say that on one occasion they saw three horsemen appear on a hill, one of whom, according to a Russian officer, resembled either an American or British attaché, fell from his horse when the Russians fired, and was evidently killed.

The Russian losses at Vafangow are expected to total 3,500.

The Japanese fleet is probably co-operating with General Oku's advance along the coast. The two Japanese armies threaten momentarily to attempt a junction, assisted by a force on the north shore of the Gulf of Liaotung.

BATTLE NEAR AT HAND.

Russians Expect Fighting on Liaotung Peninsula.

St. Petersburg, June 23.—Imminence of a battle in the northern part of the Liaotung peninsula is admitted by the war office and is indicated succinctly in press dispatches from Liaotung, Kaiping and other points on the railroad. The week of skirmishing around Shuyen retarded General Kuroki's operations, permitting General Stakelberg to reach Kaiping, the rear guard under Samsonoff slowly falling back on Suchen before the Japanese advance.

Meanwhile large forces are pouring south from Liaoyang to check General Oku and General Kuroki.

It is believed that General Kuropatkin's object is to prevent a junction of the Japanese armies. The aim of the Japanese apparently is to drive the Russians out of the Liaotung peninsula, preparatory to a march on Liaoyang. The approach of the rainy season will more than likely hasten action.

RUSSIAN FORCE AMBUSHED.

Lose Twelve Hundred Men in Fight Near Kaichou.

London, June 23.—A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Newchwang says: While a Russian force of 8,000 under General Kondratyevitch was traversing Wafungko ravine, nine miles southeast of Kaichou, June 19, it was surprised by concealed Japanese artillery.

The Russians lost heavily, their casualties being 1,200 in number.

Naval Operations Believed to Be Imminent in the Far East.

St. Petersburg, June 23.—Important naval developments are imminent in the far East.

The admiralty has no news of the reported loss of two Russian torpedo boat destroyers off Port Arthur. The latest dispatch from Rear Admiral Witsoeff, in command of the naval forces at Port Arthur, dated June 17, reports all well there.

Bandit Raisuli Increases His Demands on Government.

London, June 23.—The Daily Telegraph's Tangle correspondent says there is another hitch, and the order for sending forward the prisoners has been countermanded. Raisuli has demanded another province. When Perdicaris is released he will be brought to his town house, where his wife is ill, suffering from the treatment she received at the hands of the brigands at the time the capture was made. What will follow the release of the captives it is impossible to say.

EXPLOSION WRECKS BUILDING.

Twelve Persons Injured in Accident at St. Louis.

St. Louis, June 23.—An explosion, presumably of gasoline, in the grocery of the W. E. Reid company Wednesday caused the collapse of the two-story brick building and injured twelve persons, none seriously.

Reid and his partner Mathew Foster, a clerk, three customers and Foster's wife and five children were caught beneath the wreckage.

LIFE PRESERVERS WERE OLD.

Those on the General Slocum Purchased Years Ago.

New York, June 23.—That the steamer General Slocum had no life preservers aboard less than nine years old was admitted by counsel for the Knickerbocker Steamship company at the inquest Wednesday. Miss Hall, bookkeeper of the company, had testified concerning several bills for preservers, in which she had erased the name "Grand Republic," the sister ship of the Slocum. Notwithstanding this, counsel for the company said they would make the admission as to the age of the belts as they were unable to prove to the contrary. Evidence was also brought out that the United States inspectors did not examine the fire hose and standpipes, and that the preservers were not in good shape.

Wednesday thirty-seven victims of the Slocum disaster came to the surface, making the total number recovered 882. Of these, 778 have been identified. Definite figures as to the number missing cannot be given, but the death toll will total nearly 1,000. Today nearly 100 policemen who speak German will begin a house to house canvass for the purpose of verifying the list of the missing.

KILLS HIS WIFE AND CHILD.

Michigan Man Then Ends His Own Life With a Bullet.

Ludington, Mich., June 23.—Rier Smith, aged twenty-four, shot and instantly killed his young wife, who was living on a nearby farm. As the woman fell, a ten-months-old baby dropped from her arms to the ground. Instantly the infuriated man put a bullet through the infant's head with fatal results. He then turned the weapon on himself, inflicting a wound from which he died in a few hours. Smith's wife had not been living with him for some time and it is thought the murder followed her refusal to return to him.

Texas Instructs for Parker.

San Antonio, Tex., June 23.—The Texas Democratic convention Wednesday instructed its delegation to the national convention to vote for Judge Alton B. Parker for presidential nominee and to vote as a unit on all questions.

Fatal Fire in Illinois.

Quincy, Ill., June 23.—In a fire in the Tremont house Wednesday night Miss Elizabeth Welch met death by suffocation and her sister, Miss Mary Welch, and Edith Simon, a cook, were probably fatally burned.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

The factory of the Northern Cooperative company at St. Paul was burned to the ground Wednesday. Loss, $50,000.

BEAUTIES OF MILLE LACS LAKE

Visit Midland and Other Points of Interest

Lake all Day Long and See Interesting Sights

The following account of a trip around Mille Lacs Lake is taken from the Mille Lacs Pioneer:

"Upon invitation of Captain McLaughlin we boarded the handsome and trusty little steamer 'Remnica' last Saturday afternoon for a pleasure trip around Mille Lacs. The gallant boat glided out of her harbor at 4:30 p. m. with Jay Avery as pilot and George Orton as engineer.

"We had hardly settled down to the enjoyment of the ride, when we were surprised to find ourselves passing Vine-land and a few minutes later Mount Pleasant was sighted. Mount Pleasant is the highest elevation about the lake being, as we were informed, about 300 feet above the level of the lake. It is in the vicinity of Midland and stands back about two miles from the shore. We were told that in the fall of the year, when the leaves are off the trees, a beautiful view, including the entire water surface of Mille Lacs and of twenty small lakes in the surrounding country, can be had from the summit of this elevation. We were just getting nicely interested in a description of this interesting spot, which has lately come into the possession of Emmett Mark, of Princeton, when the speedy little steamer came to a stop. We were at Midland, and upon consulting our watch found that we had made the trip, a distance of 20 to 25 miles, in one hour and forty minutes.

"This was our first visit to Midland and we found it to be one of the beauty spots of Mille Lacs. The town was founded by Abe Mark, formerly of Princeton, a whole souled energetic fellow and a genuine hustler of the earth. The townsite is laid out on broad and liberal lines. It extends back from Mille Lacs lake about three fourths of a mile to Borden lake on the west. It is level and covered with a fine grove of maple, oak and basswood timber. There is a fine base ball park and a race track near the lake shore, and several blocks are reserved in the center of the town for park purposes. The lots are 50 by 175 feet, with streets 100 feet wide and alleys 50 feet. Central avenue and Broadway are 150 feet wide one running east and west, and the other north and south through the center of the townsite, affording a fine boulevard system.

"We put up for the night at 'Hotel Midland' and found the proprietor, Mr. H. F. Mann, a genial and accommodating gentleman. The table was par excellence, and we were provided with a clean airy room and a soft bed. Landlord Mann conducts an attractive and up to date hostelry, and looks well to the comfort of his guests. His building is large and commodious, and the interior is finished in hard-wood throughout. It affords a large office, parlor, dining-room etc, down stairs, and about twenty sleeping apartments on the second floor, also toilet and bath room, making it a modern country hotel. We found Mr. E. A. Ryder, formerly of Vineland, engaged in the general store business here. His store building is 30 by 60 feet, with a large public hall overhead. He has also just completed a cozy residence. He appears to be doing a prosperous business which will doubtless continue to increase as the country develops.

"Mr. G. A. McLaughlin is establishing a fine creamery here. The building is now completed and a Mr. Shelton, an expert butter maker from Wisconsin, is now at work placing the machinery in order, and within a week from the time you read this the Midland Creamery butter will find its way to the eastern market. The best dairy butter is now selling at the Midland store for 10 cents per pound, and it is no wonder that the farmers of that vicinity are enthusiastic over the coming of the creamery, as 10 and 12 cent butter will be a thing of the past as soon as the creamery is put in operation. Truly Mr. McLaughlin is doing a great deal of good, not only for Midland, but the whole lake country, as his boat will make daily trips around the lake, carrying passengers and freight, and gathering cream from the different shore points. Midland is certainly a point not to be overlooked in making a tour of the lake country.

"After a good night's rest and a hearty breakfast we strolled down to the lake shore to glance over Mille Lacs, from a Crow Wing county point of view. A few minutes later we were greeted by the familiar voice of Abe Mark. He had just arrived as the advance guard of a party of pleasure seekers from Brainerd who, by previous arrangement, were to make a tour of the lake on that day. It had been planned to start on the trip, at eight o'clock but, owing to some hitch, it was about eleven before the 'Remnica' raised anchor and steamed out of the harbor. The day was an ideal one, sunshiny and calm, and could not have been improved upon if made to order for the occasion. The jolly crowd aboard the boat consisted of Judge Geo. W. Holland, Abe Mark, F. E. Kenney, Charles Swanson, R. H. Paine, Peter Walters, Geo. Abbott, John Olson, L. S. Budd, Jas. McGinnis, Chas. Wilkins, John McCarthy, Miss Lottie White, and Miss Kattie McClarran, all of Brainerd; A. L. Oppenheim, of Chicago, T. F. Norton, of Cove, and Captain McLaughlin and crew.

"The first stop was made at Nichols P. O., which is nothing more or less than a fine farm home situated in a beautiful grove of oaks, which has been thoroughly underbrushed and sowed to tame grass. Insignificant as Nichols is in point of size yet it enjoys the distinction of being the only point above the lake that has a telephone connection, and a long distance one at that. Chas. Swanson, Abe Mark, and the writer went ashore at this point. Mr. Swanson rang up the National Hotel at Brainerd, of which he is proprietor, giving orders for its management during his absence. Mr. Mark tried to call up a Wall street broker in New York with a view to selling him a corner lot in Midland, and left the phone smiling. It was the Pioneer man's turn next, and we were making a desperate effort to gather the Associated Press reports for our next issue, when we were suddenly rung off by the shrill whistle of the Remnica, warning us that our time was up at Nichols, and a lively sprint was made to regain the boat. Upon reaching it, complaint was entered against the trio by Col. Kenney on a charge of Sabbathbreaking and detention of the boat for frivolous purposes. Judge Holland found all guilty, but withheld sentence until Prison Island, where Father Hennepin is reported to have been kept a prisoner for a time by the Indians, should be reached.

"Everybody was beginning to have a pretty good appetite worked up by the time Wealthwood was reached at about 1 p. m., and a stop for dinner was to have been made at that place. For some reason, however, the landlord there was unable to entertain the party, who were obliged to live on the anticipation of something to eat for a while longer. Wealthwood is distinguished chiefly for its 'cullud' settlement. An attempt was made to establish a negro colony there several years ago, and we were told that there are five or six colored families living there now, but we failed to see even one 'little Alabama coon' on the shore, and being unable to get anything to eat, the boat was headed for Isle Harbor omitting Malmo, which had been included in the list of landings. Fearing that the judge might sentence the Sabbath breakers to confinement on Prison Island, Captain McLaughlin was got next to and was induced to skip that dread spot entirely.

"A short stop was made at Big Point on the east shore, which is certainly a charming spot. T. H. Caley, of Princeton, is the owner of forty-five acres of the finest part of this point, and can boats of having the most graceful grove of elms to be found on the shore of Mille Lacs, which is saying a great deal. The next stop was made at Isle Harbor dock, where a large crowd boarded the boat and accompanied it as far as Charley Malone's place, Chas. Wicklander acting as special pilot in entering Malone harbor. It was a hungry crowd that swooped down upon Charley and he had to move at a lively rate to keep pace with the demand for crackers, cheese, sardines, salmon, etc., after which the Brainerd party's taste turned to moccasins and Indian bead work.

"Mr. Malone carries a large stock of general merchandise in his store and conducts a fine hotel and it was very much regretted that the want of time prevented the party from waiting for a regular dinner there. It was the general verdict that Malone's beautiful buildings, well kept grove and picturesque island could not be out-rivalled by anything seen about the lake thus far.

"It was intended to visit Beach, Mossomnie Point and Murray Beach, but owing to the late start from Midland, time would not admit of it and it was decided to steer direct to Cove and thence to Midland. As the afternoon was wearing well along and there was still a long trip ahead, the cry of 'all aboard for Cove' was sounded and the boat left the Isle dock at 5:45 p. m. Just outside Isle harbor, upon suggestion of Judge Holland, an important document was drawn up, conceding Col. Kenney to be the best story teller and all round entertainer on the boat, while Abe Mark was credited with being the most truthful yarn spinner of the lot. This was certified to by the signatures of all on board, sealed securely in a pickle bottle and consigned by the judge, with due ceremony, to the blue waters of Mille Lacs. Chas. Swanson, of the National hotel at Brainerd, will give a liberal reward to anyone finding the aforesaid pickle bottle.

"The boat moved along rapidly, revealing more and more of the wealth of wooded shore which makes the scenery all about the lake a panorama of surpassing charm. The view of the archipelago near Lawrence presented a picture not soon to be forgotten. At 6:30 our own beautiful Mossomnie Point was rounded and a few minutes later the Remnica again glided into Cove harbor, just as the sun was beginning to drop in the west, having completed since the previous evening, a 75-mile trip over the majestic Mille Lacs, touching on the shores of the three counties of Mille Lacs, Crow Wing and Aitkin. We took leave of the party here, and with three rousing cheers for Cove as a parting salute from her merry passengers, the tireless little Remnica once more turned her prow Midland ward and fast disappeared in the distance.

Startling Evidence

Fresh testimony in great quantity is constantly coming in, declaring Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds to be unequalled. A recent expression from T. J. McFarland, Bentonsville, Va., serves as example. He writes: "I had bronchitis for three years and doctored all the time without being benefited. Then I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery and a few bottles wholly cured me." Equally effective in curing all lung and throat troubles, consumption, pneumonia and grip. Guaranteed by H. P.
